

CENTRALIAN

1968 CENTRALIAN VOLUME XIII
CENTRAL DAUPHIN HIGH SCHOOL
4600 LOCUST LANE
HARRISBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

The theme of the 1968 CENTRALIAN is the spirit of Central Dauphin. This spirit is not found in the lonely halls, the quiet gym, or the empty cafeteria, but in the students who turn those halls into four minute traffic jams, the gym into boisterous pep rallies, and the cafeteria into three periods of babbling conversations, empty milk machines, and tables filled with forgotten lunch trays. In the following pages, the CENTRALIAN staff hopes to uncover the spirit of the entire one hundred and eighty days of this school term.

To exemplify such a theme, we have dedicated this book to our mascot, Randy. Our ram represents this spirit of Central Dauphin. The yearbook staff wishes to recognize this loyal fellow who during the years has been a symbol of the pride of Central Dauphin and the initiative and leadership of the student body.

This year the CENTRALIAN honors Randy as a silent reminder of our increasing efforts and accomplishments. Each time you glance at the gold shield of our ram on the cover of your book, remember--this year Randy was a proud ram.

The Spirit of Central Dauphin ...

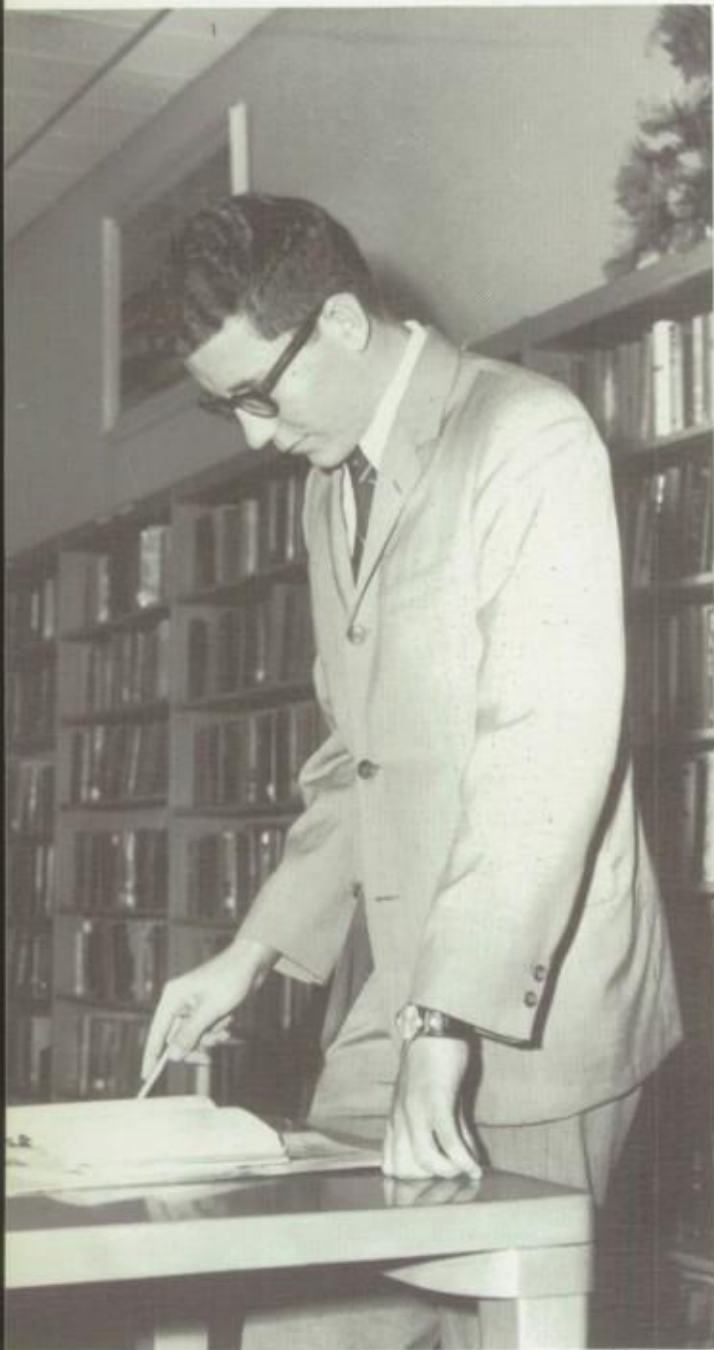

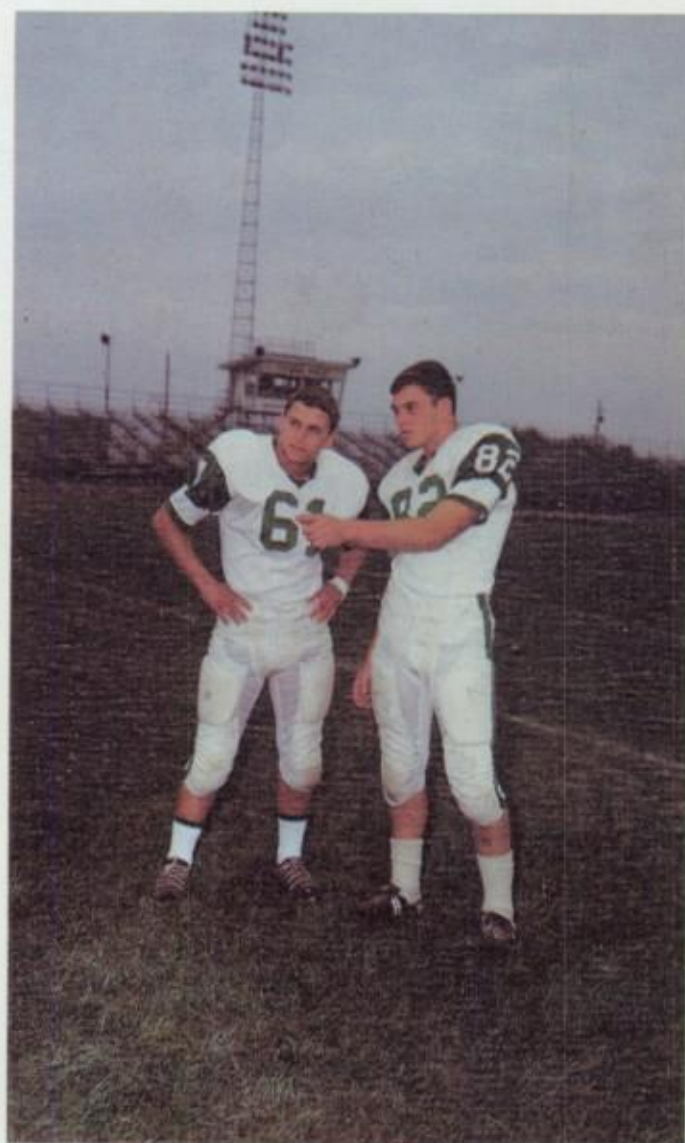

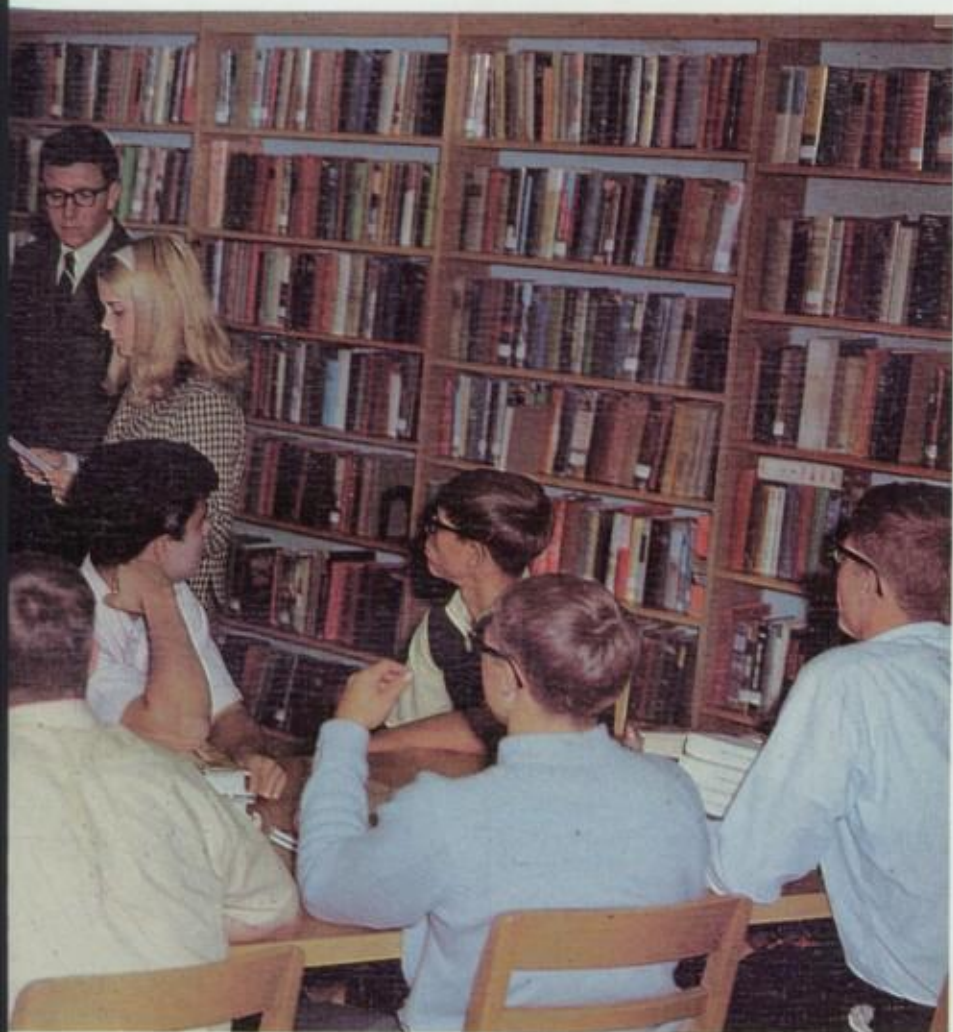

... The excitement that touched our lives.

Experiences that molded our character...

... The wisdom that strengthened our minds.

Our strength in the past ...

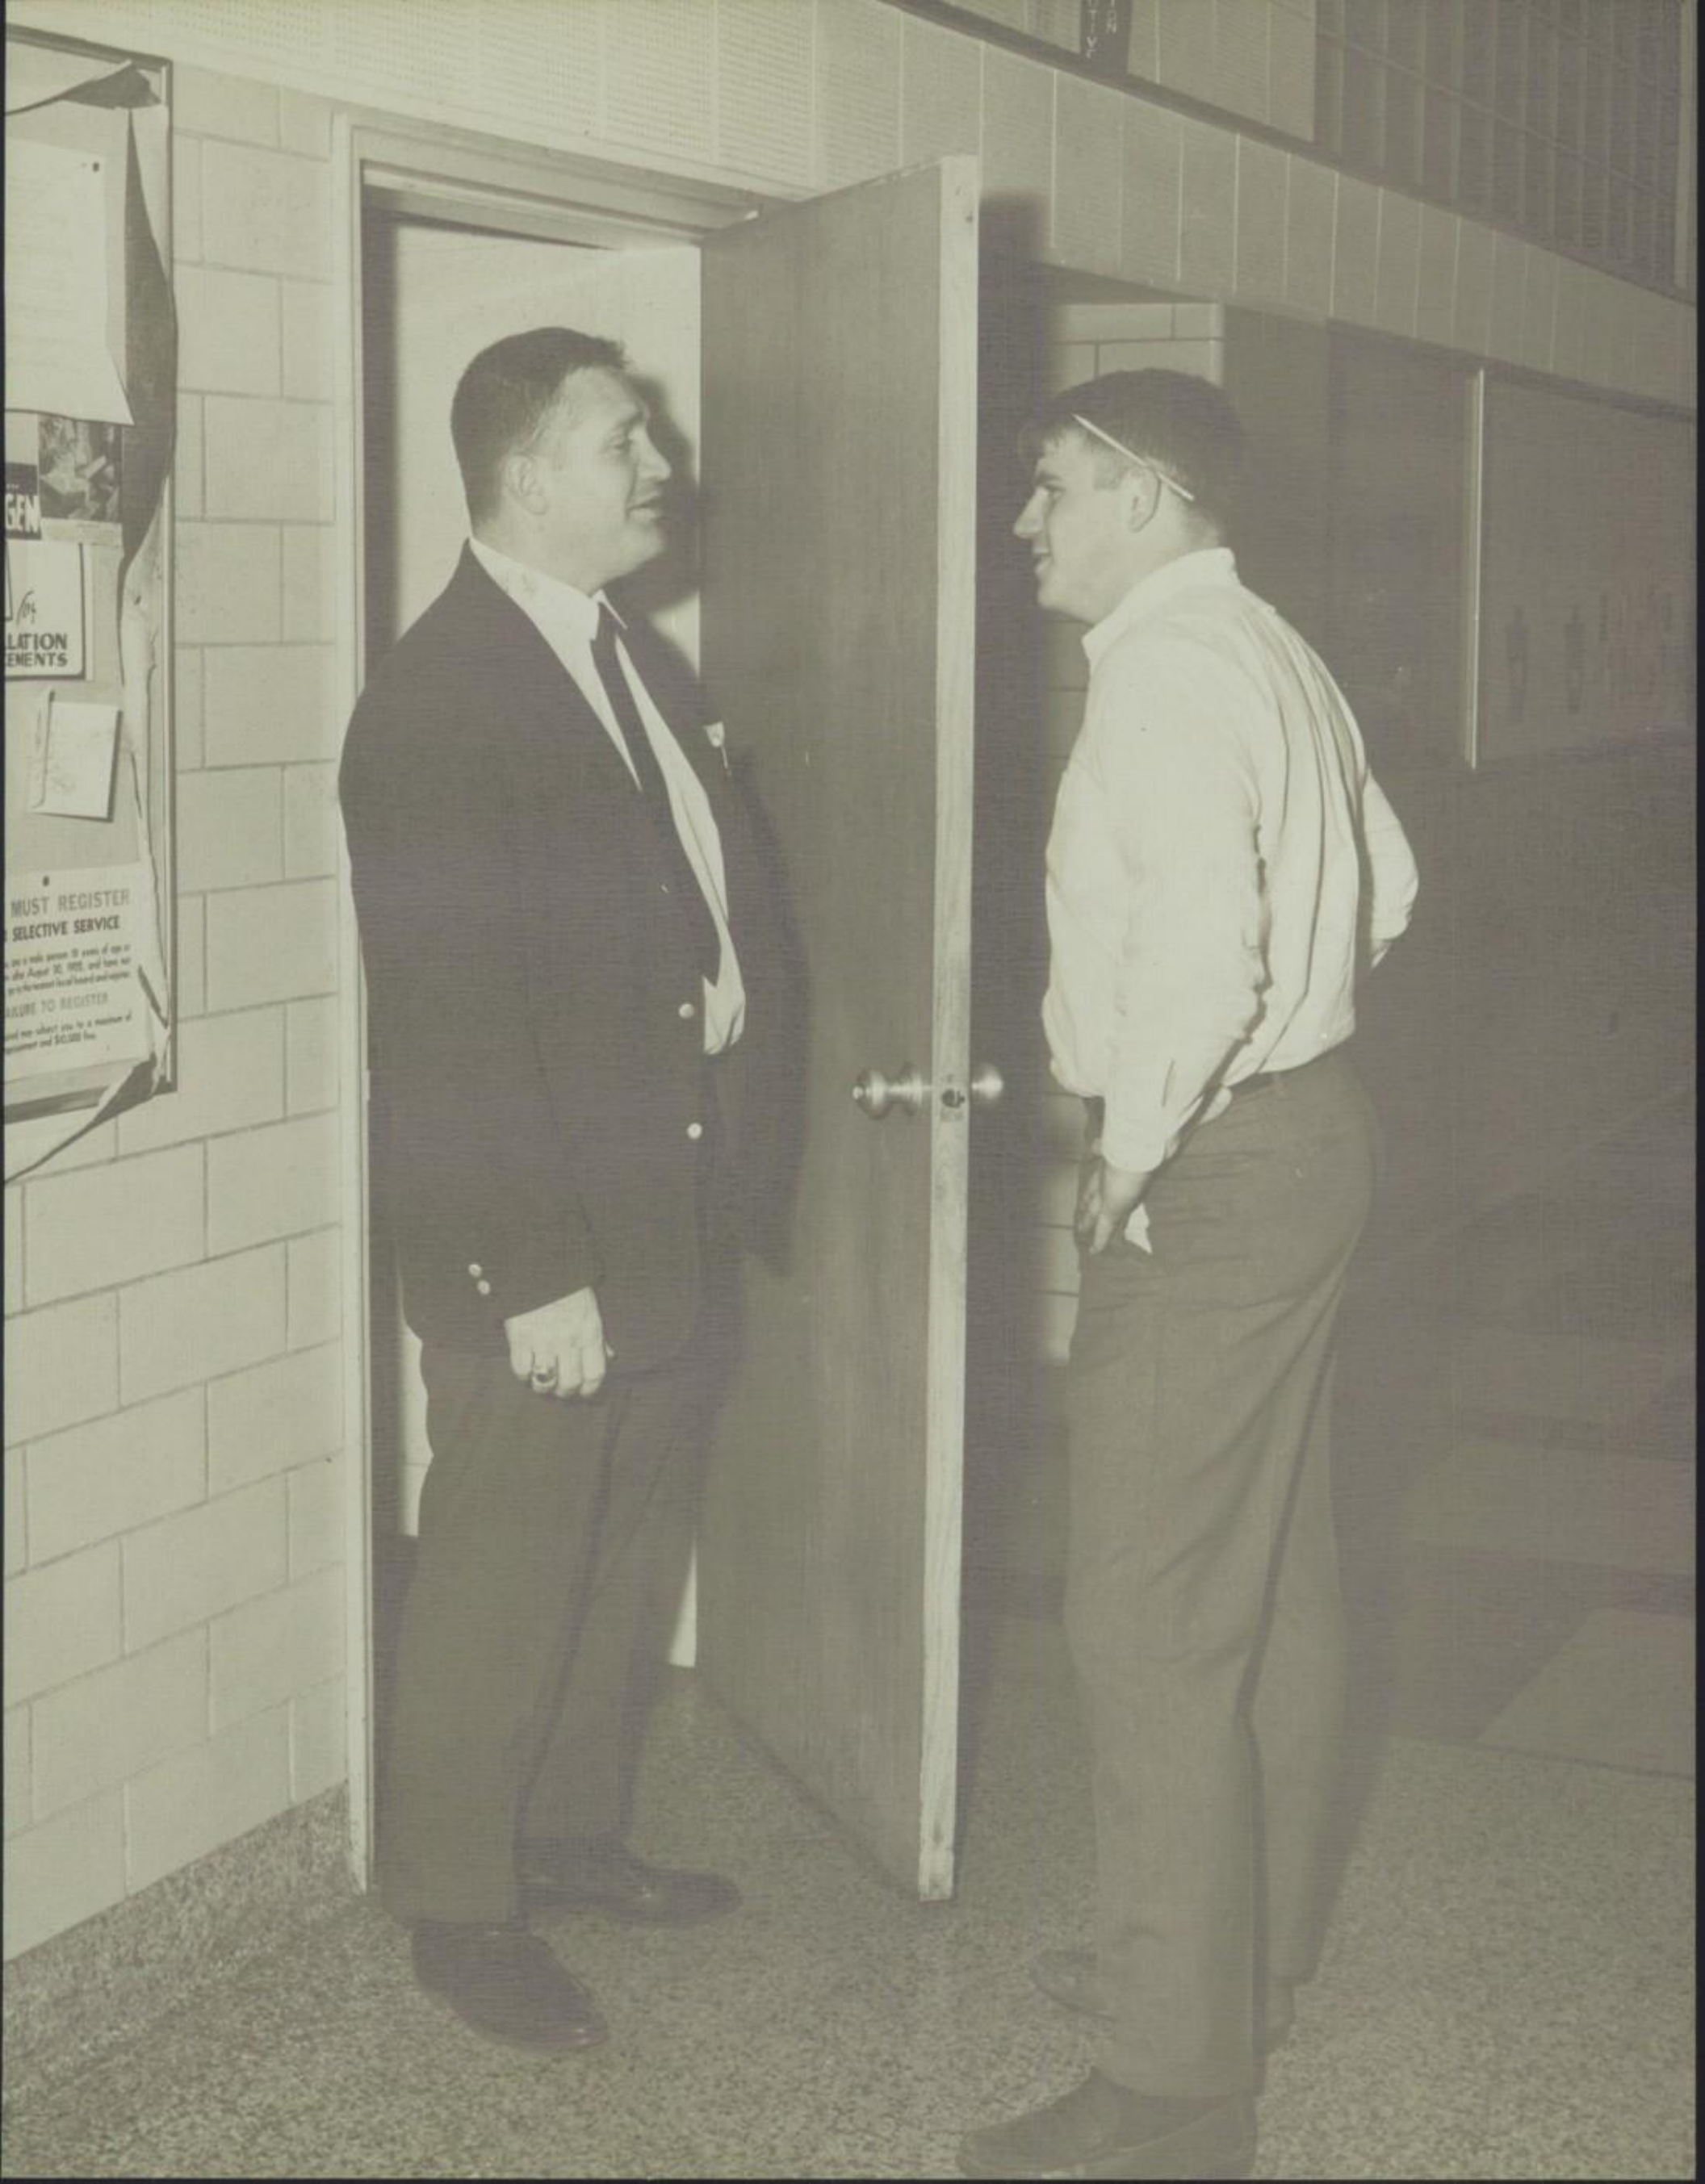

Our direction in the future.

Alma Mater

To our Alma Mater
 Ever dear, We raise
 This song of praise,
 And we'll oft' recall
 As best of all,
 Our happy high school days.
 Forever,
 Our banner,
 Of green and white
 Will fly.
 Till the Hall of Fame
 Will claim the name
 Of Central Dauphin High.

Three years ago we were told what was expected of us--
 this year we were to teach others.

In the fall of 1965, our class met together for the first time. We were told what was expected of us, and we were faced with one goal--to function as one body, the class of 1968. The next two years we built the foundation for our class, its strength composed of our interest and participation.

In the fall of 1967, our foundation was completed and we were faced with a far greater goal--to lead the future classes of Central Dauphin. As we matured to seniors, we found ourselves facing disappointments which built our character, accepting responsibilities which cultivated our leadership, and displaying determination which brought us success.

As we look back at our senior year, we realize we have left a foundation on which future classes may build. This foundation is called Pride, a quality the seniors have brought back to Central Dauphin. From the giant ram leading our spirit march at the football game with Central Dauphin East, to the mistle-toe hanging in the shop hall at Christmas, to our ram decked with forest-green and gold sitting in the lobby, the spirit of Central Dauphin has resounded everywhere.

As we sing the alma mater together for the last time at graduation, we remember this year it was sung with pride, the same pride found in the hearts of each member of the class of 1968. As graduation closes the door to these past three years at Central Dauphin, it opens to a lifetime of opportunity. As seniors we stood alone as a class, now we must stand alone as individuals.

For their cooperation...

. . .the yearbook recognizes the following people: Mr. Richard Albright for his dedication, Ensminger's Studio, Mr. Fred Hauber, and Bill Nesbitt for the pictures in this book, Linda Claar for the many hours she spent on the art work, the editors for their time and help in compiling the yearbook, the typists for their many hours typing the copy for this book, and the students and faculty who gave their full cooperation in support of the 1968 CENTRALIAN.

Class of 1969

The Junior Class has been preparing to meet the responsibilities of the coming year. This year the class sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, but it's greatest task will be in setting an example for the underclassmen to follow next year. The future spirit of Central Dauphin depends upon the leadership and responsibility of the members of the class of 1969.

Class of 1970

Last September the Class of 1970 met for the first time. From this first meeting to the graduation exercises three years later, the members of this class will learn to work together as one body striving for common goals. Their determination has already been shown by leading the upperclassmen in the school wide candy sale. This determination is the potential for their strength in the future.

The queen and her court in review. Ted Shumaker, JoAnn Trautman, Sherida Hoke, Dean Lescalette, Barb Doughman, John Corneal, JoAnn Pellegrini, Mark Knouse, Gale Wiest, Frank Gates, Nancy Bashore, and Mike McBeth.

Homecoming 1967 was celebrated at Central Dauphin October 13 and 14. During half-time festivities Friday night, the Homecoming Queen and her Court were presented to the loyal C.D. fans. As the court was introduced the Ram Band performed such hits as "Lara's Theme" and "Dixieland Strut," while the majorettes exhibited a fire-baton routine.

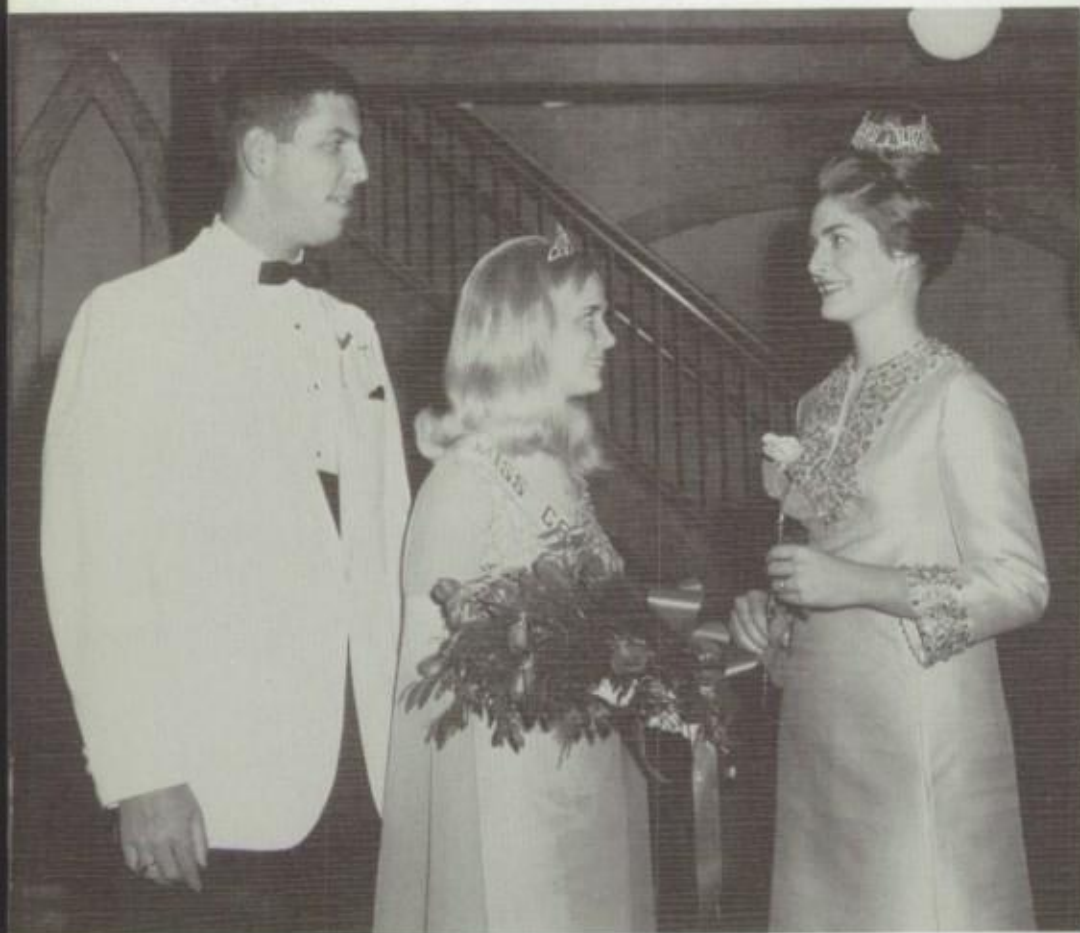

The Homecoming Dance was Saturday evening from 8:00 until 11:00, a gala finish to a spectacular weekend.

Alice Smith, 1966's Homecoming Queen, G. Irwin, F. Gates, J. Pellegrini, M. Knouse, N. Bashore, and M. McBeth view the half-time entertainment.

Youth Festival

The Youth Festival was held in the Mosque on November 24. C.D.'s representative, Frank Gates served as treasurer of the 1967 Youth Festival Committee. Teen Queen's were sent from each area high schools. Miss Central Dauphin was Nancy Bashore.

Jeff Brenner, Nancy Bashore, and Miss Doris Ann Lausch, Miss Pennsylvania.

Thespians

The Thespian Troop actively sponsored and participated in C.D.'s three school plays and all other dramatic productions.

The club's members produced a melodrama for the Penna. High School Speech League District Competition, entered a one-act play in the Harrisburg Community Theater Drama Festival, and presented an evening of one-act plays.

The motto of the Thespians is "Act well your part; therein the honor lies."

The Thesbian officers are: Leigh Fuhst, treasurer; Joanne Riley, secretary; Patty Miles, president; Doug Fyffe, vice-president.

The play, "Mr. President," was presented in the school auditorium the evenings of November 16 and 18. The play, both timely and entertaining, dealt with the problems the President of the United States and the First Family must cope with because of their constant appearance before the public. Ken Shafranko, Leigh Fuhst, Jan Vary, and Bill Fuhst were our First Family.

Standing: B. Fuhst; Sitting: J. Vary, K. Shafranko, L. Fuhst.

Leigh Fuhst tells Ken Shafranko that she wants to be "In Our Hideaway."

John Hoover and Tony Sacchet sing "Meat and Potatoes."

Tony Sacchet tells Jan Vary why "I've Got to be Around."

Ron Kenes says to Jan Vary "Don't Be Afraid of Romance."

The belly dancers were L. Weaver, L. Stumpf, B. Long, P. Fegan, J. Deavon, D. Christensen, and P. Shuey.

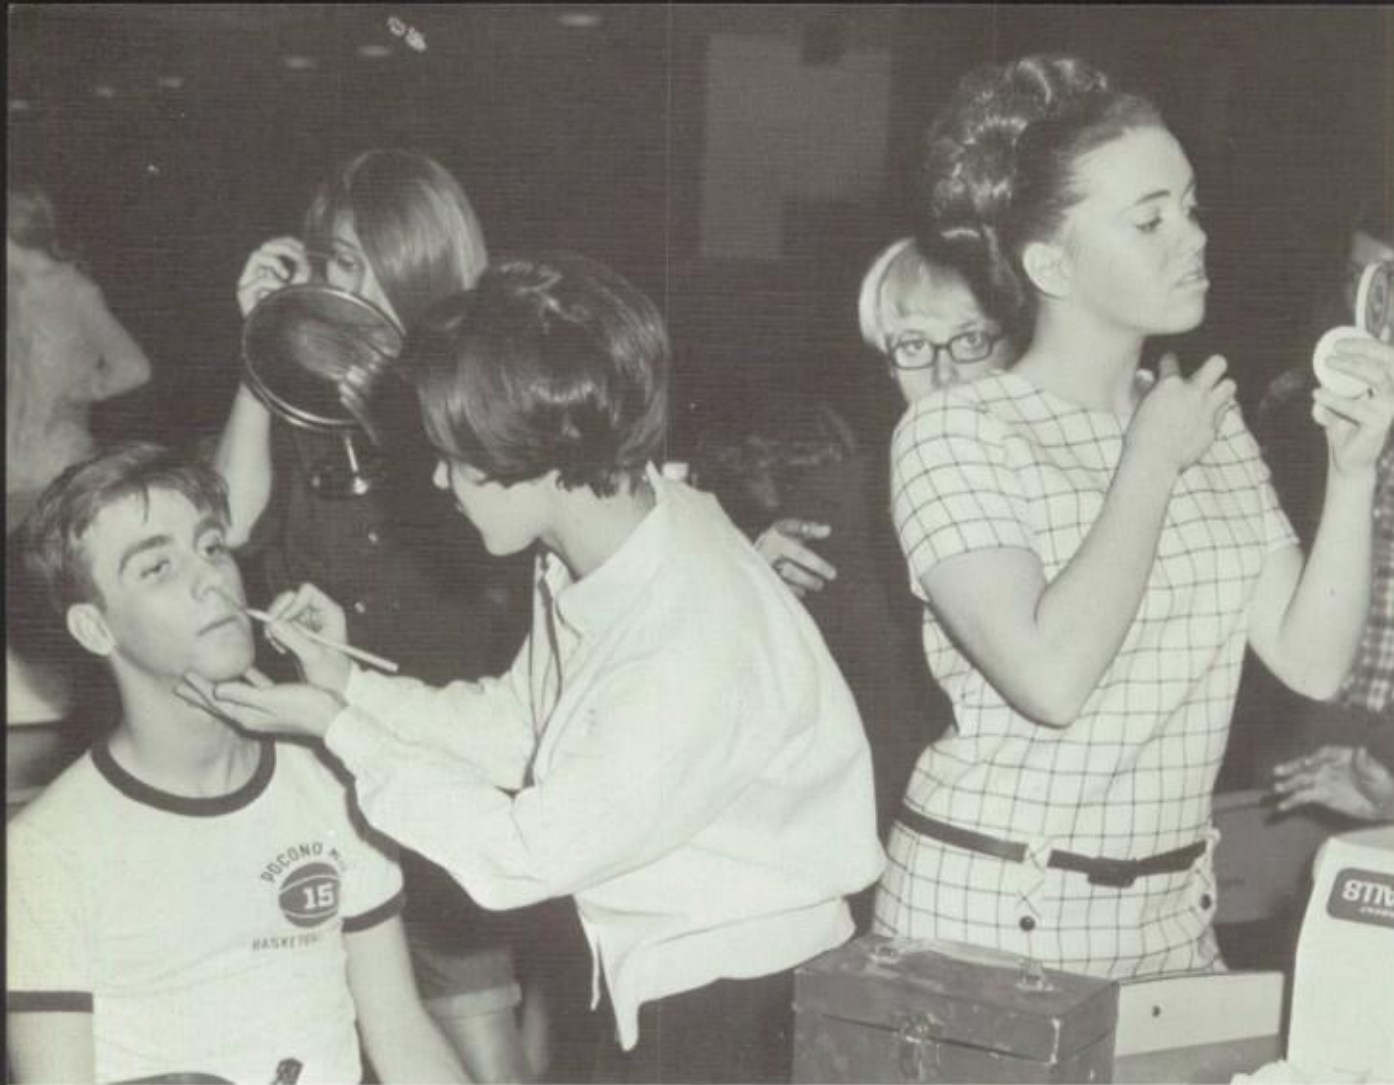

Princess Kyra (Pat Fegan) poses.

Leigh Fuhst tells Jan Vary to "Go Out and Get Him."

The Cinderella Complex

Could these two REALLY be Cinderella's Father and Lily Lady Laughingtower???

Cinderella is in a quandary. Should she follow the advice of her evil Fairy Godmother . . . or obey her good Fairy Godmother?

"Cinderella Complex," based on the fairy tale, was presented February 10. Cinderella, played by Debbie Christensen, made life miserable for her stepmother and two stepsisters. After losing her glass slipper at the ball, she recovered it and lived happily ever after with who else but the royal prince.

Cinderella proves to be quite contrary with her loving new family!

The moment of truth . . . WILL the slipper fit the spoiled Cinderella?

The cast of "The Cinderella Complex" was (seated): P. Hollett, C. Dougherty, L. Diehl, D. Wenner, D. Christensen, G. Milano, D. Weaver, S. Hitz, J. Vary; (standing): D. Weitzenhoffer, P. Shuey, G. Pierce, S. Neubold, D. Powell, P. Hurd, S. Spangler, J. Campbell, B. Helman, A. Blocker, B. Long, R. Popson, T. Sacchet, S. Jackson, H. Graybill, P. Miles, J. Stritzinger, T. Shumaker, S. Gerochi, and L. Webster.

The Stage Crew

The stage Crew was very active this year with the various plays, concerts, and assemblies. The success of these productions depended on how well they performed their duties including lighting, properties, sound effects, and building the scenery. Under the supervision of Mr. Peiffer, they helped every production to be a success.

The members were Row 1: S. Hughes, C. Hornung, and G. Shomper; Row 2: B. Kunkle, K. Pfeuffer, B. Wevadau, D. Young, and R. Krahn; Row 3: J. Gadiek.

Audio- Visual Club

In the Audio-Visual Club, the boys, under the supervision of Mr. Brickley, served both the teachers and students. When they were not operating projectors, they were repairing various other equipment. Many gave up study halls to do this. They were often seen wheeling projectors and toting screens down the halls and operating the sound systems at dances and pep rallies.

The members were Row 1: D. Evanoff, J. Stauffer, A. Fascer, A. Wickenheiser, S. Hughes, and B. Wevadau; Row 2: W. Jacob, G. Croft, D. Young, and M. Bass.

The officers of the Public Relations Club were Sherry Marks, Sue Briggum, Barb Oringer, Scott Jackson

The Public Relations Club this year consisted of three staffs, news, art and the speakers bureau. Sue Briggum headed the news staff with Sherry Marks as art chairman, Gary Shellehamer as photographer, and Barb Oringer as typist.

The club, under the faculty direction of Miss Mary Gundel, handled most of the publicity for extra curricular activities, prepared publicity for local newspapers, radio, and television, and participated in the state radio announcers' finals at Penn State.

The activities for the club were a dance after the C.D.-C.D. East football game, an orientation program for ninth-graders, and publicity for the school fund raising campaign. The bulletin board, the directory, and the school scrapbook were also major projects of the club.

The CENTRALIAN has three staffs. The Business Staff secured patrons during the summer and at school to raise funds to pay for the cost of producing a yearbook. The Art Staff designed the cover and the plan for the division pages. The Editorial Staff designed and laid out each page of the yearbook. They were responsible for positioning pictures, writing articles and developing continuity throughout the yearbook.

The RAMBLER Editorial Staff: Row 1: D. Wenner, S. Jackson, S. Briggum, S. Marks, P. Hurd, K. Sharon, S. Hitz, N. Byrd; Row 2: J. Riley, G. Wiest, S. Tillet, N. Maund, G. Shellehamer, D. Jefferies, D. Enders, R. Aziskon, B. Gottshall, B. Oringer, W. Tolliver; Row 3: D. Herrman, K. Miller, K. Forker, L. Schreffler, S. Scheaffer, B. Updegrove, M. Knouse, K. Pieffer, J. Gadjek, L. Duffy, C. Griffith.

Rambler

The RAMBLER Business Staff Row 1: P. Hurd, P. Palmer, J. Mader, R. Roddy, J. Ickes, V. Sebastian, B. High, J. Hughes; Row 2: C. Dougherty, J. Gardner, J. Porter, A. Kerstetter, K. Steckline, T. Bell.

P. Hurd, S. Marks, S. Jackson, and S. Briggum read over a RAMBLER.

The RAMBLER, a news-magazine publication, was issued six times throughout the year. The basic format was altered by the innovation of several different columns. Rather than emphasizing past events, the editors promoted an interest in diversified areas. All three staffs, the art, the business, and the editorial staffs, worked together to develop our school paper.

The Art Staff Row 1: R. Spohn, P. Posey, C. Griffith, S. Spangler, M. Sgrignoli, B. Jones, C. Demmy, D. Lorah, R. Negrete.

National Honor Society

Honor Society Officers

Jan Reese, treasurer; David Jefferies, president, Barbara Doughma, vice-president; Eden Alexander, secretary.

Members of National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of scholarship, service, character, and leadership. The Society is composed of 5% of each class. There was an induction ceremony and a tea which was held in honor of the new members and their parents.

An annual breakfast was held in April at which time recognition was given to the members. Certificates, membership cards, and emblems were received at this time.

Debate Club

The schedule of the C.D. debate team ran from October to March, including eight league debates, four non-league debates and District finals.

After a successful season, the Rams ranked third in the league, behind John Harris and Hanover, with nine wins and three losses.

The Rams entered the Invitational Speech Contest in January and the District speech Contest in February.

The 1967-1968 debate season was one of the best in recent years and next year shows even greater promise.

Ray Burns, Vice-President; Russell Roddy, President; Joyce Mader, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Central Dauphin Key Club is a community service organization. Activities included a hayride in November and a food collection for two baskets for the needy. A book drive was held for the children at the county home. A bingo game was sponsored by the club to collect money for the Cystic Fibrosis foundation. The last project of the year was the election of the "Teacher of the Year" award in May.

Key Club

The Key Club officers were John Baumgardner, secretary; Terry Bogner, vice-president; Stan Snyder, president; Jeff Auxer, treasurer; Scott Mackey, historian; Mr. Gutshall, advisor.

Interact Club

One of Central Dauphin's most active service clubs was the Interact, which was sponsored by the Colonial Park Rotary Club.

Their numerous activities included ushering at pep rallies, student tutoring, taking care of the school's mascot, Randy, during the football season, painting benches at Harmony Hall, and various community services. On the lighter side, club members filled out the year with recreational activities.

The Interact officers were L. Hamor, treasurer; R. Updegrove, vice-president; Mr. Bushman, advisor; R. Popson, President; S. Drumheiser, secretary.

The Interact members were Row 1: W. Nesbitt, L. Hamor, A. Hoecker, R. Popson, R. Patton, M. Miller, S. Jackson, J. Corneal; Row 2: Mr. Bushman, S. Drumheiser, J. Crea, T. Nophsker, D. Enders, A. Zucker, T. Milano,

Junior Civic Club

J.C.C.'s is Central Dauphin's service club. Girls are admitted into the club on the basis of character, leadership, and service.

One of the J.C.C.'s service projects was giving seasonal food baskets for needy families. They also gave a Christmas gift of a skirt and sweater to a needy teenage girl, and went Christmas caroling and took gifts to the Dauphin County Home.

J.C.C.'s advisor is Mrs. Cummings.

The J.C.C.'s officers are JoAnn Trautman, treasurer; Sherry Marks, historian; Margaret Raudensky, President; Claudia Griffith, vice-president; and Gale Wiest, secretary.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America Club was formed to encourage and introduce successful teaching techniques to future teachers.

Programs included cadet teaching, a college visit, and speakers on various fields of education. During National Education Month they held a tea for the faculty.

The F.T.A. officers are J. Sellers, treasurer; D. Mummert, secretary; M. Shaffer, vice-president; and G. Wiest, president.

The members of F.T.A. are Row 1: D. Leister, S. Reisch, D. Carper, C. Swingle, D. Mummert, J. Sellers, M. Sheaffer, P. Palmer, and K. Pratt; Row 2: D. Hunsicker,

Future Nurses of America

The Future Nurses of America were very busy this past year. The girls served as "candystripers" and Red Cross Volunteers at local hospitals, spent many Saturday afternoons helping at the TB center and gave a Christmas party for the residents of Scheaffer's Convalescent Home.

In September the club was engulfed in formal initiation. At the ceremony, Mrs. Tobin from the TB center was guest speaker. A representative from Reading Hospital spoke about that nursing school and a field trip was taken to the York Hospital.

Officers of F.N.A. were Carolyn Wetsel, vice-president; Debbie Kreiser, treasurer; Nancy Bashore, president; Nancy Rogers, corresponding secretary; Diana Herrmann, recording secretary.

The F.B.L.A. officers are Holly Clelan, secretary; Jan Eby, treasurer; Frank Gates, president; Barb Oringer, vice-president; and Bonnie Guttshall, committee chairman.

Future Business Leaders of America

The formal F.B.L.A. initiation ceremony was held December 13, 1967. An executive committee was formed to appoint committees and organize club meetings.

Among their activities were trips to a Harrisburg business firm and sending representatives to various conventions and meetings.

The members of F.B.L.A. Row 1: D. Bollinger, K. Clelan, P. Lowens, C. Price, K. Harper, C. George; Row 2: R. Sebastian, D. Leister, H. Clelan, J. Eby, F. Gates, B. Oringer, B. Guttshall, N. Allen, T. Spanish Club

This year's Spanish Club officers were Senora Naugle, advisor; Barbara Doughman, sec-treasurer; Gary Shellehamer, president, Mary Louise Young, decorating chairman; Margaret Raudensky, program chairman; and Jan Reese, refreshment chairman.

The Spanish Club consists of all third year students and interested second year students who maintain a 4.0 average. Activities included a Christmas party featuring a pinata, Spanish food and a Spanish play written and performed by the club members. A former student attending Temple University spoke about the university in general and the opportunity to continue the study of Spanish there. Many interested programs were held including a party at the end of the year for prospective members.

The German Club, supervised by Mrs. Ruth Lindquist, made this year one to remember for its members.

The holiday seasons at Christmas and Lent were especially important times. At Christmas the club baked cookies, visited homes of German background, and followed with a party. A Fasching costume party was held during the Lenten season. The year ended with a German dinner at the Hofbräuhaus restaurant.

The German Club officers were Sherry Marks, vice-president; Scott Jackson, president; and Kathy Sharon, secretary-treasurer.

Close Games Mark Tough Season

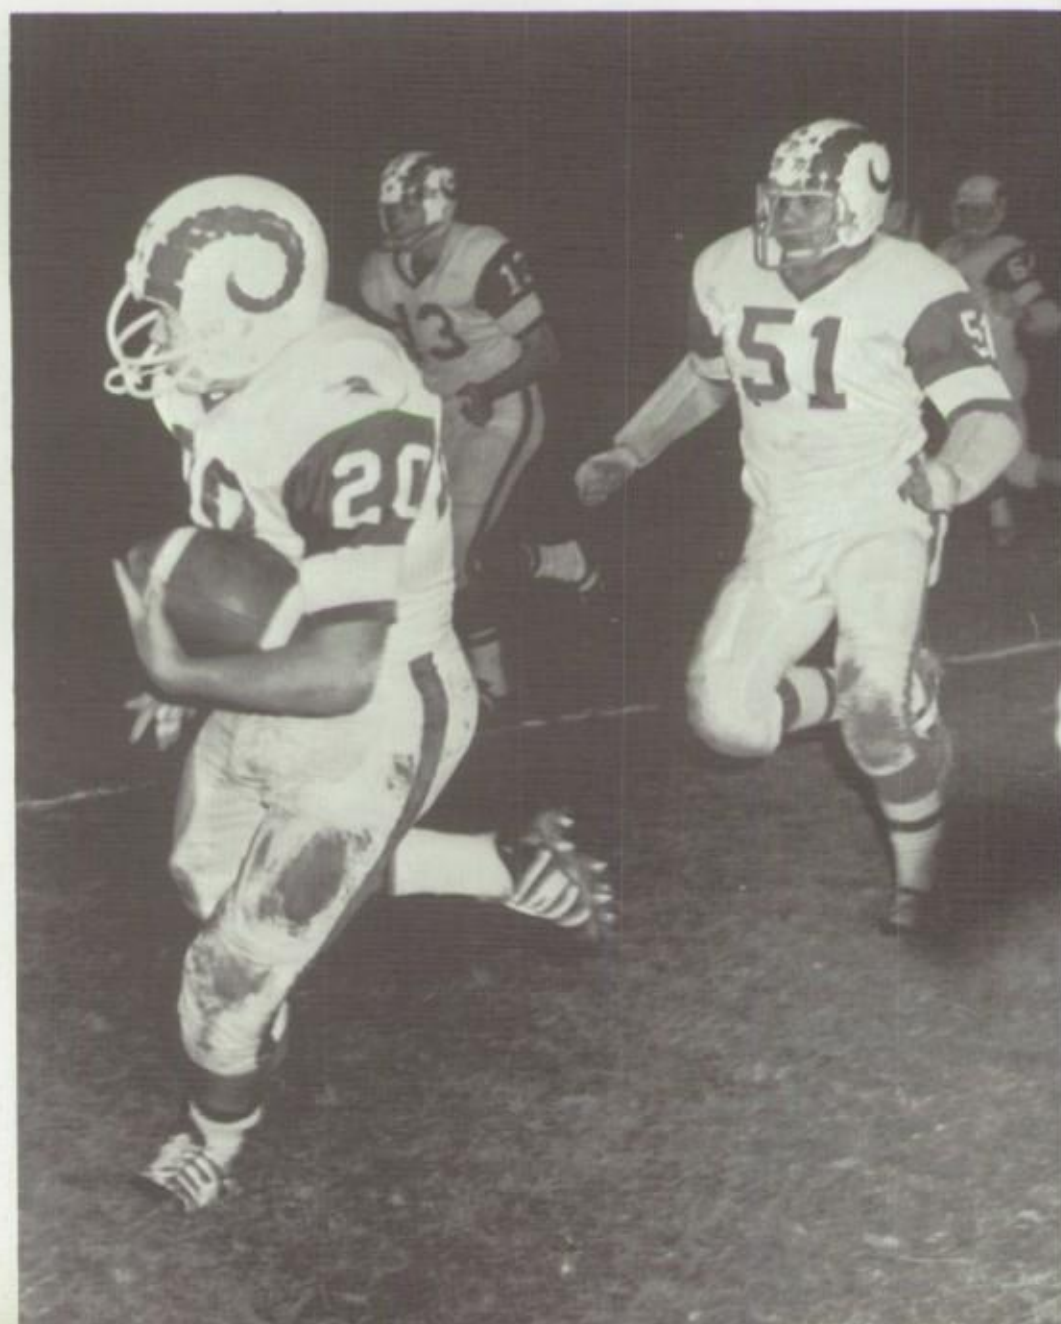

The 1967 football season included ten tough games in the best league in the area. Each of the team's three wins was fought for and won yard by yard, mostly on the ground, while the seven losses were just as hotly contested, but the breaks went the other way. Of course, Central Dauphin won the big one, and this year it was a big, big one. The Ram's Varsity, mostly underclassmen, and their supporters outdid themselves in the sport itself and in all of the pageantry that accompanies the inter-district rivalry. The fact that school spirit was at its highest was obvious, judging by the way the huge crowd exuded pure excitement. This great feeling will be remembered for many years by all of the members of the team it inspired as well as the class of 1968.

Jayvees Break Even

This year we saw the most impressive junior varsity record since we have been attending Central Dauphin. Four wins and four of the other kind is something to be proud of. To be sure, it is a good sign that the varsity will be strong in the coming years as these boys gain experience and strength. This will be accomplished without a doubt by the able coaching of Mr. O'Hearn and Mr. Herrigan as they mold more teams of fighting Rams. Congratulations and thanks to the boys and their coaches for a fine season.

Co-captains: Terry Bogner and Dan Sheaffer with Coach Robert Rice.

Outstanding League Picks

Mike Wagner, junior wingback, was one of the top ten scorers in the Central Penn League this year. He was named to the first team offense of the league's all-star squad. Great prospects are seen for him as a senior.

Rich Ortega, junior guard, exhibited a 100% effort as he played the kind of football that made him a second team choice this year. Not as big as some of the men playing opposite him, Chi-Chi made his presence known by his agility and toughness.

Roy Bowerman, junior center, has proven himself outstanding in league play. His position is more important than most fans realize and the Ram offense is helped by this all-star's accuracy.

Wish upon a penny. . .

"Hey, hey LOOKOUT East, LOOKOUT, here come the Rams . . ."

So to Make Central Dauphin

. . .this is the main concern of our energetic cheerleaders. Such colorful signs as "Go Rams Go" help boost the team's morale, as well as create school spirit.

This year's varsity squad is headed by JoAnn Trautman and JoAnn Pelligrini. Other Seniors are Sherry Hoke, Beth Jones, Jan Reese, Nanci Smith, Vicki Vathis, Tammy Wampler, and Mary Louise Young. Kay Forker is the junior member.

These squads are under the supervision of Mrs. Dennin and Miss Monaghan.

Injuries Plague Season

Central Dauphin's Cross Country team finished the season with a 3-7 record; a disappointment from the previous year's unbeaten record. A string of injuries destroyed the chance for another successful team. Co-Captains were seniors Doug Bitner and Steve Bickle. The senior members were: Keith Gingrich, Bill Crum, Dave Blocker, Mike Macut, Paul Gavenonis, Bob Penigar, and Paul Martz. Dave Weitzenhoffer was the ass't. coach.

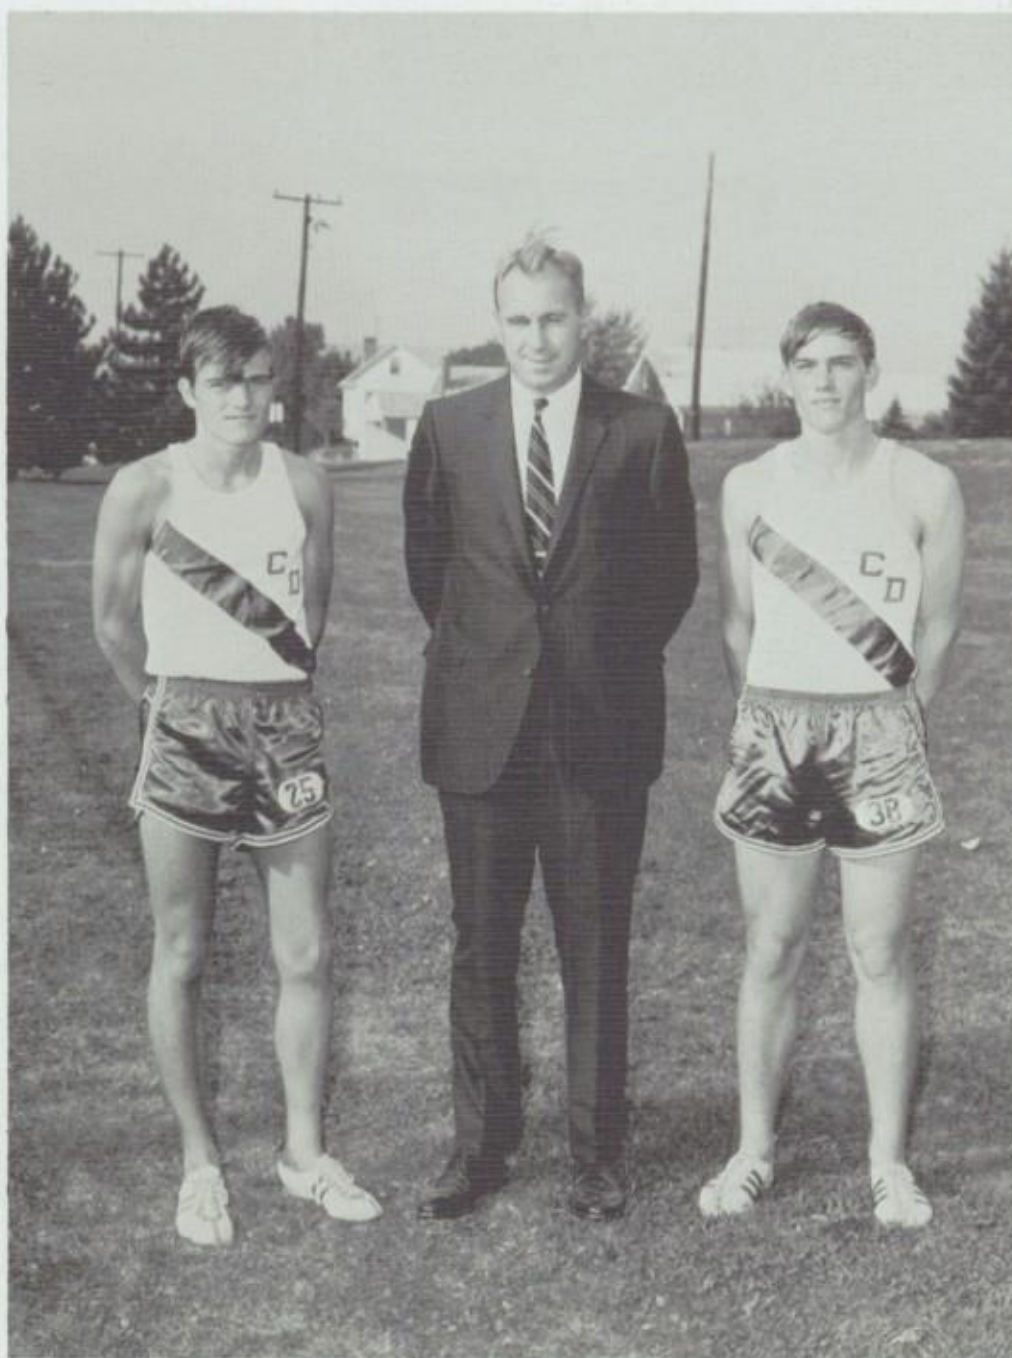

Keith Gingrich comes in for the Rams.

Hope Tops Experience

Hockey this year was at a disadvantage because of a lack of experience. However, the girls felt that "knowledge gained" is more important than an impressive record and continued to work diligently. Climaxing the year was a 1-0 victory over East occurring in the middle of the season. The Ramettes also made a good showing at the Area Play Day which was held on our field. Scorers for the season were the team co-captains - Barb Cousart and Deb Kreiser.

This year's girl's basketball teams showed an enormous amount of potential.

The Junior Varsity, coached by Mrs. Marion Forbes and led by Nadine Klineyoung and Lynn Kohler boasted of an impressive record of 11-5. Taking into account that almost all the girls were sophomores with no real experience, this shows the tremendous amount of hard work and enthusiasm put into their games and daily practices.

The Varsity, coached by Miss Nancy Wilbert and headed by Margaret Raudensky and Kathy Quaid, had a 4-12 season. But their record is deceiving since most of their games were extremely close.

Successful Season

This year, C.D.'s wrestling teams, both varsity and junior varsity, finished their seasons with outstanding records. The varsity placed second in the Harrisburg Area League with a record of 10 wins and 4 loses. The J.V.'s final season record was 9 wins and 4 loses.

The Ram's matmen coaching staff consisted of Mr. J. Kreamer, varsity, and Mr. C. Robb, junior varsity coach.

The Rams had men going into the Harrisburg Area Sectionals, which was followed by Districts, Regionals, and States.

The Season Had its Ups and Downs

This year the Rams were gunning for a repeat of the District 3 crown that they won last year. Not only the lack of height, but also the lack of big breaks highlighted this hardwood campaign.

This year's team lacked in early season experience with only one returning letterman from the championship team. It took many hours of practice and a few games for them to work as a good team. Again Mr. Thorn stressed defense, but the offense should have been more potent.

Many of the seniors will be going to college to play basketball. The juniors gained much valuable experience to become a threat to all teams next year in the race for the C.P. title.

Season Summary

Our junior varsity basketball players had a lot of individual talent among them this year, but they could not always click as a team when game time come; consequently, their record is unbalanced towards the loss side. This talent was aided by junior Terry Varner, who gave a tremendous boost to the sophomores when he voluntarily came down from the varsity to help them. It was enough to gain some exciting victories in the second-half, and it is hoped that the momentum will carry over to next year.
